

Just like the internet did 20 years ago, SIP is capturing the attention of small business owners like you and I that want flexible communications at an affordable price.

Unique Options - located in Warren, MI

Between local and long distance telephone usage, Unique Options spends quite a bit of money on communications costs each month.

Cost is a big driver for change in any enterprise, and SIP offers businesses large and small a great opportunity to achieve significant cost savings in their monthly communications bill, i.e. typically in the range of 60% savings. In the case of Unique Options, the cost savings were astonishing...

Results: After implementing SIP, Unique Options improved the overall functionality by replacing their current system with a new Panasonic IP Telephone system, and reduced their monthly communications bill by 66% - annual savings of $4,800.
